

Children's Online Privacy Policy

We recognize that protecting children's identities and online privacy is important. We encourage you to get involved with your child's online usage and to be aware of the activities in which they are participating.

Currently, Caribe Federal does not collect personal information from children under 13 years old through its Web site, nor does it set "cookies." Cookies are bits of information stored by a Web server on your computer's hard drive that record online activities. We ask you to check back here regularly to see what our latest policies are, particularly those relating to children.

In the future, if Caribe Federal decides to collect information from your child who is under 13 years old through the Web site, we will request your authorization first, in accordance with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act. If you have questions concerning the privacy of your child's personal information, please contact us at 787-474-5147, write to us at 195 Oneill St. Hato Rey PR 00918 or send an email to info@caribefederal.com
